

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1889.

NO. 83

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The melody of melodies now is the death squeal of the fattened hog.

—Rev. John Fife, of Lebanon, is conducting a series of meetings at the Christian church.

—Miss Kate Hays' school in the Holmes district closed last week after a prosperous and satisfactory term.

—Tom Robinson, living near Preachersville, had his house destroyed by fire Saturday night. Loss unascertainable.

—Mr. Will Curtis has grown tired of dishing out beef and ragout to the railroad boys at Rowland and has given up his boarding-house and returned to his farm near here.

—Each purchaser of a dollar's worth of goods at J. H. Hilton's store will be given a chance at his $60 cabinet machine. Try it, you might secure it by spending one dollar.

—Two negroes, Bob Fish and Bill Singleton, got into a fracas Saturday night in town and Fish carved a pickle-dish over Singleton's eye, for which he paid $7.50 and cost in the police court.

—All persons indebted to Chadwick & Armendt are earnestly requested to call at once and settle. Our business relations have been closed and we must settle up our business. We hate to call on an officer, but will have to resort to some means to get our money. W. B. Armendt.

—J. J. Foley, of Williamsburg, was here Monday and bought a car-load of hogs, which he shipped to that place Tuesday. Messrs. Doones & Parrish shipped one car-load of hogs and one of cattle to Cincinnati Tuesday. The Broadhead Roller Mill Company has bought several thousand bushels of wheat in this locality.

—Rev. J. Lapsley McKee, of Danville, passed through here Saturday en route home to see his parents. For the past three years he has been evangelizing south eastern Kentucky and has done more than any other man toward establishing churches and organizing Sunday-schools in Knox, Clay, Bell and Harlan counties. In an interview with your correspondent he talked enthusiastically about his work in those benighted localities. He thinks that there is not only financial development going on there, but religious and educational development. On his return he will accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Barboursville.

—Miss Mary Newland will leave for Richmond in a few days to attend school. Mr. Aaron Chappell, of East Bernstadt, stopped over here to see his relatives last week on his way to Anderson county, where he goes to continue his work for the Singer Machine Co. W. W. Penn, of the L. & N., was here Monday. Miss Hackley is visiting Miss Neville Carson at Brodhead. Miss Lizzie Davidson, of Stanford, was the guest of Mr. John McClure several days this week. Misses Nannie Kennedy and Katie James are visiting in Danville. John Corley, the jolliest of drummers, was trading with our merchants this week. Mr. Helden, a young lawyer of Louisville, stopped over here to see Lawyer Joe Blair and the two left Sunday for Pineville, where they will open a law office and begin at once the practice of their profession. E. C. Walton took in Crab Orchard and some of her citizens' surplus shekels for the "cheapest and newiest" one day this week.

—The death of Uncle "Bully" Mason at Lancaster a few days ago recalls an amusing anecdote told to us several years ago by one of the gentleman's most intimate friends. It was while Uncle "Bully" was proprietor of the Corner Hotel. One crisp November morning Uncle Bully was standing behind his counter when Col. Bill Elkin dropped in. Col. Bill was a convivial fellow, a kind of Souther Johnny and very fond of a "swig" of good liquor on a frosty morning, or to be plain, at any other time. This was one of Col. Bill's "off" mornings, as he called 'em, when he wanted something bracing and didn't have the wherewithal to purchase it. But Col. Bill's wit never forsook him at such times. Knowing Uncle Bully's fondness for fresh game and his care in keeping a good table he approached him and after palavering a bit on the weather, luck, &c., remarked incidentally that he had some fine fat rabbits out at his place and wouldn't he like to have a dozen or so. Uncle Bully said that indeed he would, inquired what they'd be worth and said something about sending out for them. Col. Bill not very particular with his friends as to money suggested that he would take the pay out in drinks, and the other agreeing Col. Bill turned off one sparkling flagon and then another and repeating the operation ever and anon while he was in town, got roaring drunk before night on his rabbit investment. A couple of days afterwards Uncle Bully feeling a craving in his stomach for something fresh, sent a negro boy out to Col. Bill's after the rabbits. To the query of "Whar's Mars Bully's rabbits?" Col. Bill, with a condescending and a rascally wink of his eye, replied, "Oh, yes, his rabbits are here; but you'll have to catch 'em. They are running loose out there in the fields." It is said that Uncle Bully was completely outwitted by this ruse of Col. Bill's that he never demanded the pay for his grog.

McKINNEY.

—A colored wedding in town last week. The jubilee and serenading lasted until a very late hour.

—J. Walker Givens had a valuable jack colt to die last week. Campbell Duncan lost a very fine milk cow.

—John B. Smith bought a lot of fat hogs from J. W. Bibb, Jr. at 3.50. Hail Anderson shipped a car of hogs to Cincinnati Monday and Emmett McCormack a car of cattle to same place Tuesday.

—Nora, little daughter of Rev. W. R. and Sarah Davidson, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday in the McKinney cemetery. Weep not, dear parents, Nora is at rest in that home where pain and death are not known.

—J. C. Rollmer, the railroad contractor, spent Monday night in our town. John S. Goode and wife went to Danville Monday. Miss Lizzie Fishburne, of Ronoke, Va., and Mrs. Ellen Webb, of Mitchellburg, are visiting the Richard Bibb and O. J. Crow families. Miss Helen Thurmond came up from Somerset Saturday and is visiting Misses Lydia and Belle Lewis. Mr. Gibbons, of Danville, and Miss Jeff Rossell were here Saturday. Mrs. Sam Huston and children, of Kansas, are visiting Mrs. Huston and family at this place. J. P. Crow is erecting a commodious stable on the rear of his lot. F. M. Ware is in the cities this week.

MT. SALEM.

—We learn that Mrs. Sallie Austin, who was taken to Somerset a few days since by a U. S. marshal, was released and returned to Yosemite, she having shown government license to sell liquor.

—Mrs. Julia McWhorter, aged about 83 years, after lying a long time with paralysis, died at her son-in-law's, Wm. M. Estes, on last Thursday evening. Her remains were taken to the Baptist church at Middleburg on Saturday, where funeral services were conducted by Elder S. A. Butt and taken to the Barnett graveyard, followed by many friends and relatives, and interred.

—The marriage of Thomas Nall to the Widow Hilton, of Yosemite, took their friends by surprise. The courtship is said to have been very condensed and devoid of romance; only one visit and that business. Mr. Nall was always a business man. The affair was celebrated by a grand charivari on that night. Here is luck and happiness to you friend Nall, and may all the little responsibilities which may result from this union be a blessing to your declining years.

THE TRIUMPHS OF SURGERY.—A remarkable instance of surgical progress, which occurred in the practice of Prof. von Bergmann, of Berlin, the other day, is reported. The professor had two patients who were simultaneously brought to him for operations, one requiring amputation of the thigh at the hip joint, the other needing a portion of the humerus removed on account of the bone being extensively diseased. The first operation to be done was the amputation, and immediately afterward the surgeon proceeded to excise the diseased portion of the humerus. The result of the latter procedure was necessarily to make a gap in the bone; but a piece of the thigh bone was taken from the limb which had just been amputated and fixed in the gap, by which the continuity of the humerus was completely restored. Perfection took place and the patient recovered with a useful arm.—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE FIRST GIRL TO ASCEND MT. ARARAT.—Mt. Ararat has this autumn for the first time, been ascended by a young girl. It seems that the forester, Mikossevitch, accompanied by his daughter, who is only 17 years of age, and by his son, a boy of 14, undertook the ascent, in the company of three Kurds. The strength of the boy was exhausted when they arrived at the height of 14,000 feet and the father stopped at the height of 16,750 feet. The young girl and the three Kurds, however, continued the ascent until they reached the top—16,917 feet. There the girl fell ill from the intense cold and in the descent was obliged to depend upon the Kurds for support.—St. Petersburg Cor. London Daily News.

SACCHARINE.—This substance, which, as known, is 300 times sweeter than sugar, is beginning to be felt by the beet sugar manufacturers as a very dangerous enemy. It is stated that in Germany, already, so much saccharine has been made as to render 5,000 tons of beet sugar superfluous. It is principally employed in the preparation of fruits and sweet liquors. It is not a food stuff. Indeed, it has been condemned by eminent medical authorities as directly prejudicial to health. The sugar manufacturers are of the opinion that saccharine should only be sold by chemists, France, Italy and Portugal are already contemplating imposing a tax upon it.

—A test case is to be made in Kansas to see if liquor can be sold in the original packages from other localities.

HUSTONVILLE.

—M. E. Allen has secured himself an entire new stock of goods and is working day and night.

—The Liberty Press announces itself six months old and in a healthy condition. Do you think it could stand to be "weaned" just at present?

—Miss Corie Wolford, eldest daughter of Mr. Brent Wolford, was buried in the cemetery at this place yesterday. Consumption claimed her as another of its victims.

—It seems almost incredible, but very strange to say, our little city seems as though it was never healthier, and has been for some time past. The weather has been such that would be likely to produce an epidemic at most any time.

—Messrs. C. B. Reid and Boyle, of Danville, are at Mr. Samuel Reid's enjoying a hunting expedition. Dr. Ed Alcorn is still in Alabama attending a "course of lectures." Miss Claudie Drye, of Bradfordville, has been with Miss Lizzie Drye for a week.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—J. S. Taylor, aged 77, died at his home in Wayne this week.

—Winchester has shipped so far this fall 80,000 pounds of turkeys.

—T. S. Jones, of Marion, bought of C. Sandridge a combined filly for $225.

—J. T. Hocker sold to Johnson, of Boyle, 10 yearling heifers at $8.50.

—W. R. Dillon bought of William Lackey a pair of aged mules for $200.

—A. T. Nunnelley bought of George Pleasant a lot of 2-year-old steers at 2 cents.

—McLeod & Anderson, Louisville tobacco dealers, have failed for a large amount.

—R. G. Gover has bought in the last week a large bunch of 2 and 3-year-old cattle at 2 1/2 cts.

—D. N. Prewitt bought of Burns & Huns, of the West End, 16 head of fat cattle at 31 cts.

—Wm. Berkele bought of Jo. Bryant, of Garrard, a field of corn at $1.40 per barrel.—Advocate.

—Sales of a number of lots of hogs at 3 1/2 to 3.40 and several of feeding cattle at 3 1/2 are reported in the Winchester Democrat.

—At Mattingly's sale in Marion 16 feeding mules brought $90.25; colts $70; brood mares $50 to $100 and corn in field $1.05 to $1.25.—Standard.

—Proctor, of East Hickman, sold to the Lexington Stock Yards Company, three hundred barrels of corn at $1.50 delivered.—Jesse's Journal.

—Green B. Morris, the turfman, sent Nicholas Quinn, a clerk of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, to a New York bank to get a check for $4,545 cashed. He got it and got away with the money.

—Cattle are a shade higher and in greater demand in Cincinnati, butchers being quoted from 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 and sheep at 3 to 4 1/2; hogs are lower, with 3 1/2 for good packers; sheep are active at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2.

—Bright Ferrell sold 9 of the Texas ponies he carried to Pulaski to Ad Catron for $235 and the rest at an average of $27.50. They belonged to W. H. Miller, who says he lost more than $100 in good money, besides a good deal of grass, on the lot of 18.

—On the Winchester market Monday were 500 cattle, with sales as follows: 37 good feeders, 1,105 lbs., 3.20; 31 fair feeders, 980 lbs., 3.02; 50 good feeders, 1,200 lbs., 3.25; 37 good feeders, 1,150 lbs., 3.27; 8 extra feeders, 1,331 lbs., 3.51; 32 common steers 2.08; good yearlings $17 to $20. A number of private sale of hogs were made at 3.35 to 3.50. A much better feeling prevailed among cattlemen and all offerings sold at prices ranging from 1 to 1 1/2 higher than last court. A strong demand for good feeders with inadequate supply.—Sun.

A PRACTICAL BRIDEGROOM.—"Now then, Jennie," said the bridegroom to the bride after they returned from the church, where the knot had just been tied, "how many brothers have you?"

"Brothers!" exclaimed the bride in astonishment; "you know I haven't any brothers, I am the only child of my parents."

"Oh, I know that, but how many young men did you promise to be a sister to before you accepted me?"

"Well," replied the bride, smiling, "I think I must have about half a dozen brothers."

"All right. You just drop a note to each of them and tell them that brother and sister business is all off now, as you have got a husband. If they want sisters, tell them to look around among the single girls. I'm all the brother you need."

—Stanley, the African explorer, has turned up safe and sound just as everybody had given him up as lost.

—Heavy gales are prevailing along the New England and Middle Atlantic coasts and on the lakes. In Dakota the thermometer, Wednesday, registered 14° degrees below zero, with indications of 25° below by this morning. In Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana and other States snow was reported.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mrs. Robert Young and son are visiting the family of her father, Dr. Wm. Huffman.

—A prominent citizen of this place will very likely be a witness in the Southworth case in New York.

—Editor M. D. Hughes is ill at his home with pneumonia, though we hope to see him out O. K. soon.

—The personal property of Wm. Lawson, deceased, was sold at public outcry at his late residence Wednesday.

—Hugh and George Mason, of Chicago, were at home last week to attend the funeral of their father, Hon. James B. Mason.

—Jo P. Sandifer is spending this week at home with his family. He is still enthusiastic in his opinion of Middleboro's success as a city.

—Rev. Lapsley McKee, Jr., began a protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church last Saturday evening. Elder J. C. Frank preached Thanksgiving sermon at the Presbyterian church.

—Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Addie Folger, formerly of this county, to a Mr. Shivers, of Illinois, on Dec. 3. If Mr. Shivers proves as good a husband as Miss Addie deserves, they will pass a happy life together.

—Attachments amounting to $5,000 in favor of the Woodford National Bank, of Versailles, were levied on the property of James A. Anderson Tuesday morning early. The property covered by the attachments consists of 44 acres of land near town on the Danville pike, the late residence of Mr. Anderson and the large tobacco warehouse and lot on Buford street. The debt for which these attachments were issued is on a security debt, Mr. Anderson indorsing for his Louisville partner, Mr. McLeod. We sincerely regret these financial troubles have come upon Mr. Anderson and hope yet he may come out with small loss.

—Constable Huffman, of the Bryansville district, brought a colored brother here Tuesday, charged with stealing a pair of pants from Duan Bros., of that place. The trial developed the truth of the charge and that the coon was wearing the pants while on trial. He was sentenced to the work-house for 20 days by County Judge Walker and as the pants were the property of the Duan Bros. and the prisoner having no others, the court was compelled to buy him a pair before he could leave the court-room for the rock pile, and to facilitate matters the court purchased the pants on the prisoner and paid the firm $1.75 and let him wear the pants of his own selection.

HUBBLE.—Eliza Smith, of Lancaster, returned from her visit to Birmingham Saturday. John Wood "bought some 400-pound hogs of James Wilhoit for 31 and some 165-pound of H. C. Walter for 3.15. George P. Bright went over to his place Saturday morning to assist in some work and while there fell helpless and unconscious to the ground. He was speechless and almost lifeless for some time. He was carried into a cabin on the farm and Dr. Traylor was sent for. He is better at this writing and it is to be hoped that he will be all right soon. Miss Mollie Beaumont was married some days ago to one Mr. Persifer, of Garrard county. Dr. Cartwright, of Junction City, visited Dr. Traylor this week and gave us a pleasant call. J. J. Walker sold his large cattle to Tom Wood for $60 per head, weighing about 1,500 pounds. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery will preach at Rush Branch another year as it is the wish of all. Sunday school at the school-house is having an organ and pulpit built. James Engleman sold a bay mare about 15 hands high to L. Hutchings for $85. S. Dunbar has gone to Russell county and will be missed in our lodge while gone. Levi Hubble and his daughter, Allie, will start to Colorado soon, to spend the winter. There came a letter to our office some days ago marked "The road to Heaven," and Frank Engleman exclaimed, "On the wrong road!" But I am inclined to believe it ought to stop somewhere in Lincoln county and perhaps at Hubble, for if the "Great I Am" was to set his centre post it would be not far from this point, where the three counties which make the garden spot of creation, join. Wm. Greever has sold his corn to John Spoonamore at $1.50 shucked in the field. John Bright has taken some 25 head of 900 pound cattle to feed 12 months for what he puts on them at 4 cents per pound. Clarence Smith was presented another fine boy by Dr. Traylor Wednesday. So he is one of the many to be thankful on Thursday.

—Frank Tausig, a Hebrew, who married a Protestant, and was in consequence cut by his race, became despondent and committed suicide at Pittsburg, Pa.

—Judge James Guthrie Coke, of the Herald-Enterprise, is mentioned as a probable candidate to represent Logan county in the next Constitutional Convention. His distinguished grand-father, whose name he bears, presided with marked ability over the convention that framed the present Constitution 40 years ago, and the judge would find no difficulty in filling the biggest seat in the new body.—Lou Times.

Harper's Weekly,

ILLUSTRATED.

A new Shakespeare—the Shakespeare of Edwin A. Abbey—will be presented in Harper's Magazine for 1890, with comments by Andrew Lang. Harper's Magazine has also made special arrangements with Alphonse Daudet, the greatest of living French novelists, for the exclusive publication in serial form of a humorous story, to be entitled "The Colonists of Tarascon; the Last Adventure of the Famous Tartarin." The story will be translated by Henry James and illustrated by Rosset and Myrbach.

W. D. Howells will contribute a novelette in three parts and Lafcadio Hearn a novelette in two parts entitled "Yuma," handsomely illustrated.

In illustrated papers, touching subjects of current events, and in its short stories, poems and timely articles, the Magazine will maintain its well known standard.
